Graduate Solicitor – Commercial Team

Sharp Tudhope Lawyers is proud to be celebrating 125 years in business in Tauranga this year. We are a commercially focused firm, with a practice which extends widely beyond the Bay of Plenty. Our professional standards, client focus, work ethic and staff training compare favourably with the best firms anywhere.

Tauranga is New Zealand's fastest growing city, and a great place to live and work.

We're seeking a Graduate Solicitor to join our commercial team. This is a great opportunity to start your legal career in a leading Tauranga firm with plenty of varied and interesting work.

You'll have exposure to a range of general commercial / corporate transactions, business acquisitions and disposals, negotiating and drafting contracts, licensing and corporate compliance.

You'll need to have excellent grades, a strong work ethic and most of all, a willingness to learn.

In return we offer a stimulating environment, challenging work and opportunities to grow and develop whilst working alongside a great team of people.

If you feel you have what it takes to succeed in this role, then we look forward to hearing from you.
