

Intermediate Litigation Solicitor

Who we are

Sharp Tudhope Lawyers is a well-established and commercially focused law firm. Our practice extends widely beyond the Bay of Plenty and our professional standards, client focus, work ethic and staff training compare favourably with the best firms anywhere.

We are Tauranga's oldest business, currently celebrating our 125th year, highlighting our success and position as a leading Bay of Plenty firm.

The role and what you'll need

We have a full-time role for a talented, ambitious solicitor for our busy Tauranga office. In return, we can offer you work that is diverse, interesting and challenging.

The ideal candidate will have more than 3 years PQE in litigation. Ideally you will have experience in dealing with one or more of the following types of work: general civil disputes, employment, construction, health and safety, negotiating and drafting agreements.

Key to your success will be your proven track record of experience, your passion for litigation, initiative and excellent communication skills.

You will be able to work collaboratively with a close-knit team while having the confidence to work autonomously on most files. You'll also need to reflect our values of Quality, Integrity, Responsiveness and Teamwork.

What you'll get

- Stimulating and interesting work, with plenty of client contact, in a supportive culture.
- The benefits of working within the national Lawlink group of law firms with a wide range of access to legal precedents
- Enjoy access to two highly respected partners in a beautiful modern office environment.

This is a great opportunity to further your career in a leading Tauranga law firm with varied and interesting work.

If this sounds like you, please apply by email to HR Manager Georgia Swney georgias@st.co.nz or call 07 928 0789 for more details.