

INTERMEDIATE LITIGATION SOLICITOR (3 YEARS + PQE)

We are seeking a talented, ambitious intermediate level solicitor to join our busy Tauranga office. The work is diverse, interesting and challenging. Working alongside two driven Partners, you will be confident in your approach and have court experience.

You will have the skills, flexibility and attitude to get involved and respond to situations as they arise.

You will have built a good grounding in civil litigation, and ideally have had some exposure to construction or employment law while working in a good firm.

A strong academic record is a must and should be included with your application. Please send your application to:
