

Relationship Property Lawyer

An experienced and talented relationship property/family lawyer is required to proactively support clients in this growing area. The ideal candidate will have at least 5 years PQE in family law/ relationship property matters, specialising in advising clients on Contracting Out Agreements, Separation Agreements, division of relationship property including trust, company and other asset planning matters.

You will be working in our medium sized, well-established firm, and enjoy our reputation for excellence. This is a full time role and it will be varied and busy. This senior role is integral to the practice with the advantage of being able to build a team. We are keen to find someone who enjoys mentoring and supervising more junior solicitors.

Benefits include

- Long term career prospects on offer
- A competitive remuneration package
- A friendly and engaging team environment and beautiful 4 green star rated offices

Selection criteria

Applications invited from experienced practitioners who have:

- Extensive experience in relation to family/relationship property matters
- Strong communication and mediation skills
- An empathetic and understanding manner when working with clients under stress
- An ability and desire to grow a team and client base
- A desire to progress his or her career

Very rarely are these senior positions available and this is an excellent career opportunity if you wish to join a professionally minded firm with great people. If you would enjoy working as a key member of this dynamic team, please contact:
