

Senior Relationship Property Lawyer

We're looking for an experienced relationship property lawyer to lead our RP practice into the future.

Ideally, we are looking for someone who:

- Has at least 5 years' experience in relationship property law (though we are happy to speak to people with less experience too)
- Is keen to mentor junior lawyers to help us build a specialist practice
- Knows their way around separation agreements, contracting out agreements, dissolution of marriage, spousal maintenance claims, PPPR applications etc.
- Has excellent drafting skills
- Has a commercial and pragmatic approach
- Is good at building relationships.

We offer:

- Competitive remuneration is on offer, as is the flexibility to reward high performance at a firm of our size.
- There are great prospects at the firm for the successful candidate.
- Flexible or remote working arrangements.
- A great work environment, with modern technology in a new 4 green star rated eco-designed offices.
- We will look after you and your career. You will be working with one of our partners who has a reputation for being a wonderful mentor. We have strong ties with external counsel for extra support as required.
- We encourage our people to be involved in all types of marketing, networking, professional development, community events and social activities.
